

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF MISSOURI,

ARTHUR WINSLOW, STATE GEOLOGIST.

GEOLOGICAL MAP

OF THE

STATE OF MISSOURI.

SCALE 1 INCH TO 18 MILES.

0 9 18 27 36

1892.

To accompany the report of
PAUL SCHWEITZER on the
MINERAL WATERS of MISSOURI
Vol. III. Reports Missouri
Geological Survey 1892.

LEGEND.

-  Pleistocene or Quaternary.
-  Tertiary.
-  Pennsylvanian or Coal Measures.
-  Mississippian or Lower Carboniferous.
-  Devonian.
-  Silurian and Cambrian.
-  Algonkian.
Represented by a light blue color, but too faint to be shown.
-  Archaean.

-  Muratic Waters
-  Alkaline "
-  Sulphatic "
-  Chalybeate "
-  Sulphur "

NOTE. The Geology of this map is compiled, with assistance of Mr. J.D. Robertson, from the published maps of previous surveys and from the results of recent work by the present Survey. A.W.